Dear [redacted]

Acknowledgment is made of your two letters dated 8 September 1947.

With reference to the employment of [redacted] I am sorry to have mislead you into believing that approval of the request was likely. The Executive for Administration and Management has recommended strongly that we avoid possible entanglements by not proceeding with this proposal unless it is absolutely necessary. We will, therefore, have to drop the matter unless the situation becomes so desperate that we have no alternative.

STATINTL

Very truly yours,

[redacted]
Chief, FBIB
